

Special Program
for the Friends of Astronomy

Frontiers of Cornell Astronomy

Saturday, August 16, 2014

9:00 am ~ 3:30 pm

105 Space Sciences Building
Cornell University

Program

9:00 am	Martha Haynes	Welcome from Cornell Astronomy
9:05	Chuck Mund Jr.	Welcome from the Friends of Astronomy
9:15	Don Campbell	Radio Astronomy at Cornell: The Early Years
9:50	Dusty Madison	NANOGrav: Searching for Gravitational Waves with Pulsars
10:25	Break
10:45	Dong Lai	Exotic Exoplanets
11:20	Eva-Maria Mueller	Discovering the Late and Early Universe: What the Cosmic Microwave Background Tells Us
11:55	David Chernoff	Relativity and Astrophysics to the Masses: Developing and teaching a MOOC
12:30 pm	Lunch Break
1:30	Chelsea Sharon	Discovering High Redshift Galaxies
2:05	Alex Hayes	A Guide to Lakefront Vacationing on Saturn's Moon Titan
2:30	Jonathan Lunine	State of the Center
2:45	Terry Herter	State of the Department
3:00	Liquid nitrogen ice cream party (Astronomy Graduate Network)
7:00pm	Dinner at a restaurant (optional)

Sign up today to receive more information!